I am a truck driver that runs all 48 states and haveing weather an traffic up dates on xm is very nice and now the country is in tornado season it lets you know werer the are sitted and where they have touched down and haveing traffic reports around the big citys is nice it would be a shame if you make them stop giveing this information out to there listeners. Jeff